Course Description and Goals:

As the gateway to the MAC curriculum, this course is a comprehensive, systematic introduction to professional spiritual caregiving; orientation to (or, in the case of advanced students, opportunity for reflection on) the role of the chaplain and methods suitable to the contexts in which chaplains characteristically serve (including schools, colleges, universities, prisons, health care facilities, fire and police departments, seaports, airports, the military, and mass casualty situations); and facilitates attainment of the "Common Qualifications and Competencies" and the "Standards of Practice" advocated by the Association of Professional Chaplains.

Completion of this course will enable the student to:

- Demonstrate awareness of and progress toward attaining the "Common Qualifications and Competencies for Professional Chaplains" expected of board-certified chaplains (and valuable to all chaplains).
- Demonstrate knowledge of the fifteen "Standards of Practice for Professional Chaplains" as stated by the Association of Professional Chaplains.
- Recount and apply techniques and practical information for service in spiritually and culturally diverse contexts.
- Demonstrate improved religious and interreligious literacy.
- Articulate a method of self-care for chaplains.
- Draw upon a range of sources in articulating a personal theology of spiritual care and theory of pastoral care.

Showing mutual appreciation and respect for others—modeling the privilege to learn from and partner with each other.

Engaging in cross-disciplinary content and teaching.

Paying attention to the whole personhood or another—history, race, religion, knowledge, gender, and rank.

Demonstrating how to disagree respectfully and well.

Embodying mutuality—learning to construct ideas and skills and experiences together.

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

Academic honesty and integrity are expected of all students. Plagiarism exists when: a) the work submitted was done, in whole or in part, by anyone other than the one submitting the work, b) parts of the work, whether direct quotations, ideas, or data, are taken from another source without acknowledgement, c) the whole work is copied from another source [especially a web based source], or d) significant portions of one's own previous work used in another course.

Inclusive Language

Hartford International University is committed to a policy of inclusion in its academic life and mission. All members of the community are expected to communicate in language that reflects the equality of genders, openness to diverse cultural and theological perspectives, and sensitivity to one another's images of God.

Accommodations

The Americans with Disabilities Act ensures equal access to qualified individuals with disabilities, and prevents discrimination on the basis of a disability. It is Hartford International University policy to provide reasonable accommodations on a case-by-case basis, which may mean working with outside social and governmental agencies to provide the necessary range of services for student success. Students with disabilities who wish to receive accommodations must contact the Student Services Coordinator. Students with disabilities are eligible for disability support services when they are enrolled in courses and they have disclosed their disability and requested related accommodations during enrollment and/or before the start of each semester. All students seeking accommodation must fill out the Request for Disability Accommodations form.

Official Handbooks

For all other questions you might have regarding policies or procedures, please see HIU's student handbook and statement of academic policies—both available online.

Communication and Technology

Students are expected to use their Hartford International University email for communication regarding the course. All students will need to log into the course site several times per week in order to take part in discussions and to access readings, videos, mini-lectures and other course materials. Students must also create a free account with VoiceThread and have access via the VoiceThread app, in Canvas, or in a separate browser window. Within Canvas, the Announcements feature will be used to convey information "for the good of the order."

About CANVAS:

This course's Canvas website is your primary roadmap for this course.

- Be sure to explore the site thoroughly before you begin.
- If you have difficulty navigating or operating any aspect of the site, do take advantage of the "Help" button (indicated by a question mark). The "live chat" feature works very well; you can expect prompt and clear responses to your questions. You may also phone the Canvas Support Hotline: (877) 249-4494.
- If you have questions about course content (or you tried Canvas Help but are still mystified), please do email or text-message your professor right away. If the situation is better addressed voice-to-voice, request a specific time for a phone or Zoom conversation. (Making an appointment ensures that your professor is ready to talk with you seated at her desk rather than walking her dogs or cooking a meal.

Attendance

This is a graduate class. All students are expected to be "in class" and to participate. We will expect cameras to be on through the duration of the class. Lack of engagement with the Canvas website for seven days in a row constitutes "absence" from the course and can lead to failure. Students who believe they have a legitimate reason for such disengagement must discuss this with the professor—preferably in advance. Failure to submit an assignment or perform a required activity on time is tantamount to absence from class. If you fall behind, skip ahead to the next module so that you can stay current with your classmates in discussions. Later on, you can return to an earlier module to fill in what you missed. Late submissions are permitted, but for fewer points.

Email Policy

The instructor will use the university's official student email addresses for all course communications. Please check your hartfordinternational.edu email account regularly.
