HARTFORD SEMINARY PEACEMAKING FELLOWS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Hartford Seminary welcomes your interest in the Hartford Seminary Peacemaking Fellows program (HSPF). Because acceptance as a Fellow ensures a full scholarship to cover tuition, books, travel and housing, candidates must be evaluated based on criteria that address how the background and aspirations of the student correspond to the mission of Fellows program.

In order to help us assess your qualifications to become a HSPF, please submit the following:

1) Three short personal essays that answer the following questions. Type each of your essays in a separate document. One page maximum per question.
   a. Why do you feel drawn to this program? Please describe the American context in which you believe your participation in the HSPF program will make a positive impact.
   b. Describe your current involvement in providing religious, educational and/or community leadership, as well as experience in local peace and reconciliation efforts.
   c. Describe any involvement you have had with interfaith dialogue. How do you imagine using the skills you will learn at Hartford Seminary upon returning to your home setting?

2) Submit one letter of recommendation from a person who can attest to your commitment to community leadership and interreligious peacemaking. Please note that this recommendation letter is to be written by someone other than the person who wrote in support of your application to the Graduate Certificate. In total, therefore, you will submit two letters of recommendation: you will have an academic recommendation that you have submitted for admission to Hartford Seminary; plus a community/religious leadership reference that you will submit for the IPP scholarship.

Upon receipt by the Seminary, your answers to the three questions in #1 and the submission of one letter of recommendation as described in #2 will constitute completion of the HSPF scholarship portion of your application to Hartford Seminary.

Thank you again for your interest in becoming a Hartford Seminary Peacemaking Fellow.
