Transformative Spirituality: Living In and Through the Spirit  (WS – 610) / Fall 2014
Miriam Therese Winter

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This new course will explore cosmological, mystical, and multicultural themes that are central to an emerging planetary spirituality and will show how the archetypal labyrinth can assist us in the deepening of our own spirituality.

COURSE SYLLABUS

Session 1  September 8  Transformative Spirituality: An Introduction
Read: Fiorenza, “Toward a Feminist Wisdom ....”

Session 2  September 15  Life is a Labyrinth
Read: Candolini, Labyrinths

Session 3  September 22  Life is a Story
Read: Nepo, Seven Thousand Ways to Listen

Session 4  September 29  Life is Sacred
Read: Nepo, Seven Thousand Ways to Listen

Session 5  October 6  Transformative Paths
Read: Sams, Seven Sacred Paths

Session 6  October 13  Embracing the Circle
Resource: Mandalas

Session 7  October 20  Journey to the Center
Read: Kujawa-Holbrook, Pilgrimage, the Sacred Art

Session 8  October 27  Science and Spirituality
Read: Chopra, Mlodonow, War of the Worldviews

Session 9  November 3  The Divine Milieu
Read: Wilbur, The Integral Vision

Session 10 November 10  Transformative Leadership and Spirituality
Read: Anello et al, Transformative Leadership

Session 11 November 17  Living in and Through the Spirit

Class meets Monday evenings from 5:00-8:50 pm
COURSE READINGS

