Course DESCRIPTION

This course will be based on the assumption that Islam is both a belief system and a world civilization. Therefore, all movements, sects and schools of thought will be treated as an integral part of Islam, broadly understood. The course will introduce Shi`ism as a general phenomenon within Muslim history, but will concentrate on Twelver Imami Shi`ism, as it is the most developed and influential Shi`ite legal school (madhhab). We will study Shi`ism in Muslim history from its beginning to the present. We will examine primary texts in translation, and when possible, in original languages. We will also read and discuss a good sampling of secondary literature.

This is a graduate seminar that will be based on class participation and lectures. Grading will be based on class attendance and participation, weekly readings and discussions, a class presentation of an individual research of a topic that will be developed into a 12-15 page final term paper.

Grading
Grades will be computed as follows: class participation, discussion and leading weekly book discussions 30 percent; class presentation of research topic 20 percent and final term paper 50 percent.

Recommended Readings

For further research and additional readings, please consult the extensive library of Shi’ite sources on line: www.al-islam.org and http://www.noorlib.ir/View/en/Default

All required books will be assigned for weekly readings, where two students will introduce a book and lead a discussion of it. It is of course assumed that all students will also have read each book in the assigned, and not listed order. This is an important part of your class participation, which will constitute 30% of your final grade.
