

BLACK MINISTRIES PROGRAM

Alumnae Association Application 2014-2015

Hartford Seminary's Black Ministries Program (BMP) is a national model for building the leadership, training, and preaching skills of laity and clergy in the urban church. Individual components of the BMP are: Black Ministries Certificate Program, Black Ministries Alumni Seminars, and Educational Outreach Programming.

Alumni of the BMP are vital to our educational institution as they are servant vessels to the urban Church, offering support to the program, one another and the wider community. BMP Alum seek to gather together on a routine basis to fellowship, continue learning and developing in their ministries and to provide guidance to the BMP administration and Hartford Seminary in continued educational opportunities for future students and the community at large.

Officers will be voted in by membership for a two year term, with the ability to serve one additional consecutive term. Offices include: President, Vice President, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Historian, Chaplin and Assistant Chaplin.

Reunite – with old and new friends.

Reunions- Our goal is to provide a venue on a biennial basis to unite and promote fellowship, growth and development among alumni

Recognize- alumni for excellence in their achievement and contributions in ministry

Newsletter- Quarterly newsletter to highlight alumni ministries, community events, provide information for ongoing education and training opportunities

Learning- to be held at least quarterly to focus on a variety of topics identified as areas of interest by fellow alumni to stimulate progressive thinking and provide a catalyst for ongoing ministry. This may be done through continuing education, lectures, engagement with faculty, and the seminary Library.
