

J-1 PROFESSOR ARRIVAL ORIENTATION INFORMATION

Exchange Visitor Program Description: The Exchange Visitor Program fosters the exchange of ideas between Americans and foreign nationals. In addition, the program encourages international collaborative teaching, lecturing and research efforts for Professors. Exchange programs and institutional partnerships help create dialogue, friendship, and understanding between Americans and people of different cultures and faiths throughout the world. These programs establish long-lasting ties between the United States and other countries, resulting in a better understanding of American values and institutions. A major component of the Exchange Visitor Program is participation in cross-cultural activities.

This document has been prepared by Hartford Seminary to summarize some of the important rights and responsibilities you have as a J-1 Exchange Visitor in relation to regulations governed by the Department of State. It also identifies some of the situations for which you should seek assistance from Hartford Seminary. We will be pleased to offer additional information, as well as counseling and assistance on all federal regulations and procedures related to your lawful status.

Please note that immigration regulations change. We will inform you of all changes via email, therefore please be sure to check your email at least once a week and confirm that we have your current email address on file. We strongly advise you to contact us any time you have a question or if you intend to travel and reenter the United States.

Program Sponsor: Your program sponsor is the institution listed in item number 2 on your Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) status (Form DS-2019). The program sponsor has legal authorization to grant you certain benefits, assist you in applying to the DoS or DHS for other benefits, and assist you in fulfilling your responsibilities while you are here.

Category: Your Exchange Visitor category appears in item number 4 of Form DS-2019. It will indicate Professor. You are not ordinarily allowed to change your category once you have entered the United States in J-1 status. Any change in category must be clearly consistent with and closely related to your original exchange objective and necessary due to unusual or exceptional circumstances. The program objective cannot change and must remain the same.

Subject/Field Code (also known as your Program Objective): The subject/field code, found in item number 4 of Form DS-2019, specifies the field of teaching/lecturing you are classified in while at Hartford Seminary. It is also known as your program objective because it indicates the primary purpose for your travel to the United States. The activities you engage in while in this country must be directly related to your program objective.

Immigration Documents: The following documents are very important and you must maintain their validity at all times in order to maintain lawful J-1 status:

- Valid passport
- Valid Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) Status (Form DS-2019)

You should keep these documents in a safe place. We recommend that you make photocopies of these documents and store them in a secure location separate from the original documents. If any of these documents are damaged, lost, or stolen, you must have them replaced as quickly as possible. Please keep in mind that the J-1 visa stamp on your passport does not need to be valid at all times, but it must be valid when you travel outside the U.S. and wish to reenter. You should contact the CISSS if you have any questions about these documents or if you need to have them replaced.

Student and Exchange Visitor Information System -Sevis: It is very important that your information in our records is up-to-date. Sevis will report information about your status to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Failure to maintain accurate records with us may result in technical violations of your status. If you fall out of status, and your violation is reported to DHS, your J-1 status could be immediately invalidated and you may lose all J-1 status benefits. This would result in you and your dependents leaving the United States.

Hartford Seminary reports to the U.S. Government only the information required by federal law. This includes all of the information on Form DS-2019 and information on “reportable events” that affect your immigrant status. These events include but are not limited to: (1) J-2 dependent information; (2) U.S. residential address changes; (3) completion/termination of your exchange visitor activities, (4) program sponsor transfer.

Failure to Comply with Program Responsibilities: Immigration laws in the United States provide severe penalties if you fail to comply with your immigration responsibilities. Maintaining accurate records at Hartford Seminary will be especially important because Sevis automatically reports details of your status to DHS. You should make certain that you comply with all J-1 regulations during your entire exchange visitor program at Hartford Seminary. Your primary activities are to teach, lecture, observe, or consult while you are here in addition to participating in cultural activities. Any other activity besides conducting research (to be approved by the Responsible Officer (RO) or Alternate Responsible Officer (ARO) in advance) is not permitted.

The Seminary is always pleased to provide you with information, counseling, and assistance so that you may achieve your goals while at Hartford Seminary.

Payment of Fees to Hartford Seminary: All fees charged to you by Hartford Seminary must be paid by the due date given. Fees are due by the first day of the semester. Please contact Nancy Wood by email (nancy@hartsem.edu) or by phone at 860-509-9524 in the Business Office if you need to make payment arrangements. If any fees are not paid and you have not made a payment arrangement with Ms. Wood, your DS-2019 record may be in jeopardy of being terminated. This is due to failure to adhere to program guidelines set forth by Hartford Seminary.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds will be given to exchange visitors who withdraw from the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program before the end date as noted on their Form DS-2019 or if their end date is prior to the end of a semester (see semester dates on the document titled “J-1 Professor Applicant Fees and Related Information”).

Dependents (Spouse and Children): If you are married and/or have children, you may be eligible to have your spouse (husband or wife) and/or children, under the age of 21, visit you temporarily or join you for the duration of your time at Hartford Seminary. In Sevis, dependent spouses and children who accompany or follow-to-join a J-1 Professor must each be issued an independent Form DS-2019 in order to apply for a J-2 dependent visa. All J-2 dependents must reside with the J-1 Professor. J-2 dependents are allowed to remain in the U.S. as long as the J-1 Professor maintains legal J-1 status in the United States.

J-2 dependents are permitted to apply for employment authorization through the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) under the condition that the employment is not for the purpose of supporting the J-1 Visa holder. Income from the spouse's or dependent's employment may be used to support the family's customary recreational and cultural activities and related travel, among other things. Please visit: <http://www.uscis.gov/i-765> for an employment authorization application (I-765) and instructions. In addition, please see the CISSS for additional information.

When to Contact the Coordinator of International Student and Scholar Services (CISSS):

To ensure that you maintain your lawful immigration status, you must contact the CISSS as soon as possible if any of the following events occur:

- If you would like to participate in any activity off campus that is not related to your primary program activities or a cultural activity. Your main activity while in the U.S. is to teach, lecture, observe or consult at Hartford Seminary. All other activities are incidental and should not take place regularly; this includes occasional lectures or consultations
- Prior to accepting an invitation to engage in research at Hartford Seminary or another institution
- If there is a change to the expected date of completion of your J-1 activities
- If you would like to have your dependent spouse and/or children join you in J-2 status after you have arrived in the United States
- Any change to information about your J-2 dependents
- Any change to your source of funding
- If you intend to travel outside of the United States – You will need a valid travel signature on your Form DS-2019 prior to traveling (the same applies to your dependents)

- If you plan to apply for a new visa before reentering the United States
- If you intend to change your non-immigrant visa status prior to the end date on your Form DS-2019
- If you intend to transfer to another Exchange Visitor Program
- Change of Address: If you move within the United States, you must inform the CISSS of your change of address within 10 days of moving. Please report any changes in your telephone number and email address at that time as well. The CISSS will report your address change in Sevis. We must have record of your physical address, not just a P.O. Box at all times.
- If any of your immigration documents are lost or stolen (the same applies to your dependents); this must be reported in Sevis and replaced as soon as possible

Extensions: You may teach, lecture, observe, and consult at Hartford Seminary until you complete your activities or until the end date in item number 3 of Form DS-2019, whichever occurs first. If you need more time than allowed by the end date on your Form DS-2019, you must contact the CISSS at least 30 days prior to the end date to request an extension. All requests for extensions must be submitted in writing and are reviewed by the President. It is important to know that each category under the J-1 Visa has a specific time limitation; Professors are limited to five years maximum, with a minimum of three weeks.

Change of Status: If eligible (please see the CISSS for eligibility), you may apply for a change of status to another non-immigrant visa classification. Please download instructions and complete Form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status from the USCIS website (<http://www.uscis.gov/i-539>). This should be done as soon as you determine that you need to change your visa classification. You must continue the approved activity under your current visa classification until USCIS renders a decision on your application. If you fail to follow this regulation, you risk falling out of status.

Note: If you are subject to the two-year home residency requirement, you are not eligible to change your nonimmigrant status. If you have a waiver to this requirement, you may apply to change your status. Be sure to include a copy of the waiver with your change of status application.

Transfer to a Different Exchange Visitor Program: You can transfer from one program sponsor to another only if the purpose of the transfer is to complete the objective for which you were admitted to under your current exchange visitor status. In addition, you must remain within the same participant category. Please see the CISSS for transfer procedures and deadlines.

Returning Home while Dependent Remains in United States: All J-2 dependents must leave the United States when the J-1 principle holder does. If your J-2 dependent(s) return to your home country before you do, please inform the CISSS at least 10 days prior to the date they plan to leave so that your Form DS-2019 can reflect this change. This also applies when the J-2 dependent does not plan to return to the U.S. with their J-2 Visa.

Termination of Form DS-2019/Departure: If your DS-2019 is terminated you and your dependents must leave the United States and return to your home country immediately, and are not given a 30-day grace period. Not complying with the health insurance requirement and not following all policies set forth by Hartford Seminary and the Department of State will put you in jeopardy of having your DS-2019 terminated.

30-Day Grace Period upon Program Completion: You and your dependents are given a 30-day grace period which begins the day after your program ends. The only activities permitted during the grace period are: travel within the United States or making preparations to return to your home country.

Staying in the U.S. longer than the 30-day grace period granted is not permitted without an extension of your DS-2019

Health Care Insurance Coverage: All professors and their dependents are required to have adequate major medical insurance (accident, illness, and hospitalization), medical evacuation and repatriation insurance for the duration of their time at Hartford Seminary.

You and your dependents, if applicable, are required to have medical insurance that covers the following:

- Medical benefits of at least $100,000 per accident or illness
- Repatriation of remains in the amount of $25,000
- Expenses associated with medical evacuation to your home country in the amount of $50,000
- The deductible should not exceed $500 per accident or illness

The Gateway Patriot Exchange Program meets the required “A” rating as stated in 22 CFR 62.14. The required rating is noted on the back page of the plan brochure.

Please Note: Not all pre-existing conditions are covered under this plan. Please read the brochure carefully for the pre-existing conditions that are covered.

If you choose not to enroll in the Gateway Patriot Exchange Program and wish to enroll in an insurance plan of your choice, please see the CISSS to verify that the plan meets J-1 Visa regulations prior to enrollment in the plan. Acquiring medical insurance and keeping coverage for your entire program for you (and your dependents if applicable) is required. You must submit proof of enrollment in an approved health insurance plan for you and your dependents to the CISSS. Willful failure to do so is a direct violation of the Exchange Visitor Program regulations and your DS-2019 is subject to termination and you will have to leave the United States immediately. In addition, any misrepresentation on your part or your dependents regarding insurance coverage is also in direct violation of the health insurance requirement. You will be required to obtain medical insurance upon your arrival at Hartford Seminary.

Please keep in mind that the insurance policy you choose, must be underwritten by an insurance corporation with an A.M. Best rating of “A-” or above, an Insurance Solvency International, LTD (ISI) rating of “A-I” or above, a Standard and Poor’s Claims Paying Ability rating of “A-” or above, or a Weiss Research, Inc. rating of B+ or above. In addition, the policy must be backed by the full faith and credit of the government of the exchange visitor’s home country.

Program regulations also discuss coverage through HMOs and self-insurance of the above requirements by federal, state or local government agencies, state colleges and universities, and public community colleges, if permitted by law. Refer to [22 CFR 62.14-<http://www.ecfr.gov/cgi-bin/text-idx?rgn=div8&node=22:1.0.1.7.35.1.1.14>] for additional information.

J-1 Professors are allowed to remain in the U.S. with an expired J-1 visa stamp; provided that they are maintaining lawful status and that their passport and Form DS-2019 are valid. Note: Although you may remain in the U.S. with an expired J-1 visa, it will be necessary to apply for a new visa during your next trip abroad. You will need a valid J-1 visa in order to reenter the United States.

If you travel to Canada, Mexico or adjacent islands in the Caribbean, you may be eligible to reenter the country even if your J-1 Visa has expired, provided your visit does not exceed 30 days. You should consult with the CISSS before traveling outside of the United States.
